SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

ASSOCIATED PRESS,

Plaintiff,

- against -

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE,

Defendant.

06 CV 1939 (JSR)

DECLARATION OF ANDREW SELSKY

I, ANDREW SELSKY, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, do hereby declare:

1. I am currently Chief of Caribbean News for The Associated Press (“AP”), the plaintiff in this Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”) lawsuit. I submit this declaration in opposition to the motion of the Department of Defense (“DOD”) for partial summary judgment and to obtain access to newsworthy photographs and information concerning the individuals detained at the Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (“Guantanamo”).

2. The Associated Press is a not-for-profit, news sharing co-operative that gathers and disseminates the news to newspapers, magazines, broadcasters, cable television operators and Internet content providers throughout the United States and around the world.

3. As Chief of Caribbean News, I supervise AP’s reporting on events at the U.S. Naval Base in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. My statements in this Declaration are based on my own personal knowledge.

BACKGROUND OF AP’S FOIA REQUEST

4. The United States government says that it has detained 759 individuals at Guantanamo since January 2002. Through a series of FOIA requests and litigation, AP has obtained from DOD largely unredacted records of hearings conducted by Combatant Status Review Tribunals (“CSRTs”) and Administrative Review Boards (“ARBs”) at Guantanamo.

5. The transcripts and records provided to AP by DOD covered only a portion of the detainees that have been held at Guantanamo since September 11, 2001, and many of them refer to the subject of the proceeding only by a number and not a name. Therefore, on January 18, 2006, I submitted an additional FOIA request specifically asking for (1) documents that would identify each detainee who, since September 11, 2001, has been confined for any period of time at Guantanamo by name, nationality, home town, age, and dates of confinement, and (2) any other relevant identifying information in the possession of DOD. (A true copy of this request is attached hereto as Exhibit A.)

6. In response to a request for clarification from DOD, on February 3, 2006 AP advised DOD that the request for “other relevant identifying information” should be understood to seek a photo of each detainee and information on height, weight, and religious affiliation of the detainees.

7. When DOD did not respond to my January 18 FOIA request in a timely manner, AP inquired of DOD when a response would be forthcoming. DOD was unable or unwilling to state when, or whether, it would provide the information being sought. AP therefore commenced this litigation on March 13, 2006 to compel DOD to release the additional detainee information.

8. Subsequently, DOD agreed to provide a subset of the information sought in two waves: On April 19, 2006, DOD provided the name, Internment Serial Number (“ISN”) and citizenship of each detainee for whom a CSRT was convened. On May 15, 2006, DOD produced a list of 759 detainees, providing name, ISN, citizenship, and date and place of birth. DOD represented that this list identified every individual “detained by DOD” at Guantanamo for any period of time since September 2001. (A true copy of this list is attached as Exhibit B.)

9. DOD has not yet provided the requested information about the religious affiliations of detainees, and has refused to provide photographs and weight information. This information is newsworthy and sought by AP to shed further light on the activities of DOD, and to be able to report on the circumstances surrounding the continued detention of hundreds of men, without charge, by the U.S. government.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE DETAINEES

10. AP is seeking only one photograph of each detainee for identification and newsgathering purposes. Presumably, such a photograph was taken of each detainee shortly after his arrival. In the CSRT and ARB hearings a number of detainees insisted that they are victims of mistaken identity—that DOD believes they are someone they are not. Release of photographs will help allow these claims to be confirmed or dispelled. It will also allow detection of those who may have presented aliases or false identifying information. It will reassure the public about who actually is the subject of detention.

11. The photographs will also provide the public with information on the physical condition of the detainee at the time the photo was taken. Many concerns have been voiced about possible mistreatment and abuse of detainees. Release of identifying photos may reasonably be expected to provide information that addresses these concerns.

12. The news value of photos of detainees is enormous, as well as being a critical part of the historical record. Photos would show the world the faces behind the names. Images are often retained by news consumers more than words or video footage, and convey more fully the reality of the underlying facts. Still photography is a critical medium that should be part of the government's accountability of events in Guantanamo Bay, and of the public's right to know about them

13. Although I understand that DOD in this litigation points to policies and practices that generally seek to avoid disclosing photographs of prisoners of war, the U.S. government has denied that the detainees at Guantanamo are prisoners of war. In any event, the U.S. government itself has released photographs of detainees, even since September 11, 2001. For example, immediately after U.S. forces captured Saddam Hussein, DOD released a videotape of him receiving a medical exam by American military personnel. DOD also released post-capture photographs of Hussein with a beard and after it had been shaved off. Pictures of John Lindh, an American Muslim captured in Afghanistan, and Khalid Shaikh Mohammed suspected Sept. 11 mastermind, were released after they were captured. (Images of these detainees released by DOD are annexed hereto as Exhibit C.)

14. The key point is that the release of an identifying photograph will be extraordinarily useful to citizens wishing to understand the nature of who is being held at Guantanamo – their age, fitness, and physical condition. Just as mug shots are routinely released when individuals are arrested in order to inform people about the actions of the criminal justice system identifying photos of detainees held at Guantanamo should be available to the public. Obtaining photographs of the Guantanamo detainees would complete the data provided by DOD and allow detection of full accountability of the identities of those detained.

HUNGER STRIKES AT GUANTANAMO

15. DOD also refuses to provide the information it has collected about the weight of detainees, even though this information will shed important light on the scope and severity of a series of hunger strikes by detainees at Guantanamo.

16. I understand that many detainees have engaged in hunger strikes after being brought to Guantanamo. Last year, two major hunger strikes by detainees are known to have taken place. Reportedly, the purpose of these hunger strikes was to protest the conditions of the detention and the fact that the detainees are being imprisoned without charge for an undefined period.

17. The number of detainees who took part in the hunger strikes has been disputed. DOD asserted that the number of hunger strikers peaked at 131, but counsel for the detainees say that the total number is much higher.

18. DOD's response to the hunger strikes has been a subject of significant controversy. Most prominently, DOD's force-feeding of some detainees has led to contentions that some of its techniques are tantamount to torture. Some of these claims are set forth in the Declaration of Richard G. Murphy, Jr. in Support of Petitioner's Motion for Injunction Against Further Torture of Mohammed Bawazir in Al-Adahi v. Bush, Civ. No. 05-280 (D.D.C.). (A true copy of the Bawazir declaration is attached as Exhibit D.)

19. In responding to claims made by some detainees, DOD has filed papers demonstrating that it has monitored carefully the height and weight of the detainees. Indeed, it apparently has tracked the weight of detainees on hunger strikes on a weekly or daily basis, as reflected in a chart submitted by DOD as an exhibit to the Declaration of Stephen G. Hooker. This declaration was also submitted to the court in Al-Adahi v. Bush. (A true copy of the Hooker declaration is attached hereto as Exhibit E.) Dr. Hooker detailed Bawazir's weight history, noting that Bawazir weighed 126 pounds when he arrived at Guantanamo in May 2002; when he was admitted to the detainees' hospital after beginning a hunger strike he weighed 106 pounds; and on January 11, 2006 weighed only 97.5 pounds.

20. Based on the information provided by DOD in Al-Adahi v. Bush, it is evident that DOD has collected records tracking the weights of the detainees. Release of this information will provide valuable, new information on the condition of the detainees, as well as allowing the public to assess the scope and effectiveness of the hunger strikes.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Re: Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act

Dear Sir:

This is a request from The Associated Press (AP) for information pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552. AP is seeking production of the following:

1. Transcripts of all testimony given at Administrative Review Board hearings at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, from June 1, 2005 through the date of your search.
2. Copies of all written statements or documents of any type provided to the Administrative Review Board by or on behalf of any detainee during the same period.
3. Copies of all written communications or documents of any type provided by any detainee at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, to his assisting military officer during the same period.
4. Copies of any affidavits, statements, or documents submitted by witnesses or other third-parties to the Administrative Review Board, including that of medical personnel, during the same period.

I note that the Department of Defense website indicates that 464 Administrative Review Boards have been held as of January 17, 2006. See Administrative Review Board Summary, available at <http://www.defenselink.mil/news/Jan2006/d20060117arb.pdf>. AP is seeking records for all Boards held since June 1, 2005.

AP is also seeking production of the following information:

1. Documents sufficient to reveal the name, nationality, home town, age, and dates of confinement of each detainee who, since September 11, 2001, has been confined for any period of time at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.
2. Any other relevant identifying information about the detainees in your possession.

AP is seeking these materials in connection with its coverage of this administration's war against terrorism and its treatment of people detained or convicted on terrorism-related charges, a continuing news story of great interest to the public. The status of detainees held at Guantanamo Bay is closely followed internationally, and remains an issue of great public interest within the United States. We therefore ask that you expedite your response to these requests as required by 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E). I certify that the information is sought on behalf of and urgently needed by The Associated Press, the world's largest news-gathering organization. AP seeks the information in order to inform the public concerning actual or alleged federal government activity.

As I am making this request on behalf of the AP for use in reporting the news, no fees may be assessed for searching or reviewing documents sought by this request, and no duplication fees should be charged to the AP for the first 100 pages of material. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II); 32 C.F.R. 286.28(e)(7). AP hereby consents to pay duplication charges up to a total not to exceed $250 if this request generates more than 100 pages of responsive material. Please notify me in advance before incurring any duplication charges in excess of this amount. Alternatively, I request that any fees for duplication above $250 be waived.

If all or any part of this request is denied, please cite the specific exemption(s) that you think justifies your refusal to release the information and inform me of your agency's administrative appeal procedures available to me under the law. I would appreciate your handling this request as quickly as possible, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Because this information is of timely news value, please release any information pursuant to my requests as it is received and/or reviewed by your office, rather than waiting to send me all the material I have requested in one batch. If you have any questions about this request, please contact me by telephone, fax or email, rather than relying upon regular mail. You may reach me by telephone at 787-793-5833 (office), or 787-565-6772 (cell); fax at 787-774-0071, or by email at aselsky@ap.org.

Whenever you have material to release, I would also appreciate it if you would contact me by phone so I can arrange for a courier to pick up the documents.

Thank you for your assistance with this request.

Sincerely,
